

SUN PRAIRIE MEDIA CENTER

WORKSHOPS

While Sun Prairie Media Center is well known for it's KIDS-4 program, SPMC also has a lot to offer Sun Prairie's adult population. All residents are eligible to participate in the SPMC workshops, designed to offer information on all aspects of video and audio production.

Through these workshops residents are offered not only the chance to expand their media skills, but also the chance to gain the knowledge necessary to become an independent producer for SPMC. There are four workshops offered by SPMC.

NON-MEMBER: $35

Participants in this workshop will learn how to successfully produce a radio program for The SUN, 103.5FM.

Topics include music automation, voice tracking, playing tracks/cuts from physical media, host a talk show, even taking phone calls!

ON-LOCATION

MEMBER: $25
NON-MEMBER: $35

This workshop covers what a producer needs to know while filming away from the studio. It consists of individual instruction on basic camera set-up, usage and techniques. Participation in this workshop is required to check-out equipment. You will learn the equipment that is available for check-out along with tips and tricks for shooting.

POST-PRODUCTION

MEMBER: $35
NON-MEMBER: $45

Editing a program and adding titles and credits creates a more finished, professional look. In this workshop, participants are given personal instruction on the use of video and computer software used to edit video while adding graphics and text to a program.

IN-STUDIO

MEMBER: $35
NON-MEMBER: $45

In-Studio production utilizes the facilities at SPMC to its fullest. This workshop covers instruction on studio lighting, switching, studio sound and studio cameras. This is excellent instruction for volunteers and producers. In-studio productions are common for both recorded and live programs.
